ISSUE	DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM	DATE/TIME	DURATION
--------------	-------------------------------	------------------	-----------------

GOVERNORS RACE

We hear excerpts that illustrate what the campaign for Governor sounds like apart from TV commercials. With another debate cancelled today and just one more to go, will voters ever hear about the budget, spending cuts and taxes?
Aired Monday, October 4, 2010 7:00pm 1/2hr.

MORTGAGE CRISIS

Starting last Thursday, some 50,000 homeowners filled a cavernous space in the LA Convention Center 24/7 for the past six days in hopes of getting help negotiating with lenders.
Aired Tuesday, October 5, 2010 7:00pm 1/2hr.

ATTORNEY GENERAL RACE

The DA's of LA and San Francisco are running for state Attorney General, and we hear what San Francisco Democrat Kamala Harris and Republican Steve Cooley had to say about prisons, the death penalty and other issues.
Aired Wednesday, October 6, 2010 7:00pm 1/2hr.

EDUCATION/CIVIL RIGHTS

LA's elected school board has reached an agreement to modify state law on the grounds that the seniority rule in hiring deprives students in high-poverty areas of their constitutional rights. Will a judge sign the deal? Will the teachers go along?
Aired Thursday, October 7, 2010 7:00pm 1/2hr.

STATE BUDGET CRISIS

The ongoing state budget crisis is discussed, along with two ballot propositions that could make it better -- or not. We also hear about the race for Lieutenant Governor, a boring job with two interesting candidates.
Aired Monday, October 11, 2010 7:00pm 1/2hr.

GOVERNORS RACE

Meg Whitman and Jerry Brown meet tonight in a debate broadcast live at 6 o'clock on KCRW. Will they talk about the prospects for taxes, spending cuts and restoring order to a dysfunctional state government? We hear sound bites and analysis of tonight's debate.
Aired Tuesday, October 12, 2010 7:00pm 1/2hr.

Debra Bowen is a Democrat running for re-election as Secretary of State. Her Republican opponent, Damon Dunn, is a businessman who never registered to vote until last year. We hear them debate their qualifications. Aired Tuesday,
Aired Tuesday, October 19, 2010 7:00pm 1/2hr.

STATE ELECTIONS

Propositions 20 and 27 are a recipe for confusion, two measures with different answers to the same question: should an independent panel draw the lines for legislative and congressional districts, or should it be the politicians themselves?
Aired Wednesday, October 20, 2010 7:00pm 1/2hr.

GOVERNORS RACE

Twelve days before the election, Jerry Brown may be pulling away from Meg Whitman, while Carly Fiorina is holding her own against Barbara Boxer. We hear what a respected poll shows about voter opinion.
Aired Thursday, October 21, 2010 7:00pm 1/2hr.

GOVERNORS RACE

Republican registration in California is down to 31 percent. Republican Party leaders are now bashing not just the unpopular Governor but some of their own candidates on next week's ballot.
Aired Monday, October 25, 2010 7:00pm 1/2hr.

STATE ELECTIONS

San Francisco Mayor Gavin Newsom says he'd outperform former State Senator Abel Maldonado, who was appointed Lieutenant Governor in April. Will the winner use the job as a stepping stone to higher office?
Aired Tuesday, October 26, 2010 7:00pm 1/2hr.
